Trend's Newest Technology Center, GSH, Brings Over 20 Years of Experience to the Market and Opens New Office

Redmond, WA (March 11, 2011)—Trend Control Systems (www.trend-americas.com) announced today the recent partnership with GSH Group, Inc. as its latest Trend Technology Center. GSH Group, Inc. is a global building engineering and energy management provider that offers over twenty years of HVACR experience and provides service to the Mid-Atlantic/Northeast Region.

Mike Walsh, GSH Group's Chief Operating Officer commented, "Offering the Trend product line is an easy transition for GSH because it complements our existing service line including HVAC installations and energy management services. This new offering will bring additional value to our clients."

The recent addition of Trend Control Systems to GSH Group, Inc.'s product offering has led to the addition of a Philadelphia Regional Office. The new office is situated at the Camden/Philadelphia interchange of the New Jersey Turnpike and is within 20 minutes of Center City Philadelphia at the following local: East Gate Center, 308 Harper Drive, Suite 105, Moorestown, New Jersey.
